1 directed me to deal with him. I mean, there was
2 nobody else at TechniGraphix but him that was
3 higher than him.

4 Q. After Phoenix Color purchased
5 TechniGraphix's stock, who told you that you had
6 to deal with Don Tyler?

7 A. What I was told when I came back, when I
8 came back from the training, was my manager said
9 see Don Tyler. I went back and, you know, that's
10 who I dealt with. There was nobody else to deal
11 with.

12 Q. Who was your manager at the time?

13 A. Ed Buckson.

14 Q. Did anyone ever tell you that Don Tyler
15 was a vice-president of Phoenix Color?

16 A. I don't recall.

17 Q. At the time you were dealing with Don
18 Tyler, did you think he was a vice-president of 19 Phoenix Color?

20 A. He had a card, a business card, that
21 said to that effect.

1 Q. So is that a yes or a no?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Other than his business card, was there
4 anything other that made you think, anything that
5 anyone said or did, that made you think that he
6 was a vice-president of Phoenix Color?

7 A. That was enough for me. I didn't do
8 a -- I mean, you know, if somebody says go see
9 the person in that office, he's the new decision
10 maker, I would take that, you know. It's not 11 like -- Jack Tiner said hey, Donny Tyler is
12 running the show here, I'm not running the show.
13 My boss told me who to talk to.

14 Q. Do you recall what his card said on it?

15 A. I don't recall, but that was a long time
16 ago.

17 Q. Do you recall keeping the card?

18 A. No. I wish I could find it.

19 Q. When is the last time you've talked to 20 anyone about this business card?

21 A. This is the first time I've talked about
